Primary Duties and Responsibilities

As prescribed by the Adjutant General and the Chief, National Guard Bureau for the Weapons of Mass Destruction Civil Support Teams (WMD-CST). The WMD-CST mission is to deploy to assess a suspected nuclear, biological, chemical, or radiological event or large-scale natural disaster. The WMD-CST will advise civilian responders regarding appropriate actions, and facilitate requests to expedite arrival of additional state and federal assets to help save lives, prevent human suffering, and mitigate great property damage. The WMD-CST is a joint-force unit consisting of both Army and Air National Guard personnel. Based upon existing or anticipated state agreements, the team may respond across State boundaries. The successful candidate will be responsible for performing the duties of NBC Survey Team Chief in the event the NBC Survey Team Chief is not available during a WMD incident. The selected individual will participate in the state of the art detection and sample collection technology training per the Survey team-training schedule and will be expected to be proficient in NBC antidote administration, safe patient extraction, and crime scene/evidence preservation techniques. The selected individual will participate in monitoring WMD-CST chain of custody (sample transfer) procedures and following the National Institute of Occupational safety and health (NIOSH) Guide and applicable OSHA standards when responding to incidents utilizing the appropriate respiratory protection. The selected individual will utilize the established checklists and code words in reporting the detection, identification and sample collection actions in the Hot Zone/contaminated area.

WMD-CST members will attend approximately 1200-1800 hours of initial training during the first 12 months of the tour. The team is operationally ready 24 hours/day/week for both real-world mission requirements and training/exercises. WMD-CST members may work under hazardous and potentially life threatening conditions. Incentive Pay & Bonus: When all requirements are met for this position, you will be awarded the "R" Identifier in SIDPERS. Once this action occurs, you will be eligible for the CST SAVE pay of $150.00 per month and one year after qualification, a CST State Retention Bonus of $2000.00 per year.
